Article 1 Introductory Provisions

Due to the interruption of electricity supply to the University of Pardubice facilities in Doubravice on January 12 and 13, 2026, following a hot water pipeline failure, the Dean of the Faculty of Chemical Technology of the University of Pardubice (hereinafter referred to as "FChT") issues the following measure.

Article 2 Current information

To all employees of the FChT with workplaces located in the Faculty's premises in Doubravice (hereinafter referred to as "employee"), I hereby notify an obstacle on the side of the employer due to the interruption of electricity supply following a hot water pipeline failure. The obstacle on the side of the employer shall occur on 12th and 13th January, 2026. During the period of this obstacle on the side of the employer, the employee shall not attend the workplace and shall not be assigned work under the employment contract. At the same time, I hereby inform you that employees are entitled to wage compensation in the amount of their average earnings.

Article 3 Final Provisions

This measure becomes valid and effective on the date of the Dean's signature.

Pardubice 9th January 2026
